

IBF YOUTH LEADERS BASKETBALL CUP SINGAPORE QUALIFIERS 2019

COMPETITION RULES & REGULATIONS

Overview

FIBA, the international basketball federation, and their foundation the International Basketball Foundation (IBF) launched the IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Program in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands in 2018. This program main aims are using basketball as a tool for positive social change.

As part of the program, the youth leader selected by each federation will organize the IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Cup national qualifiers with the support of their national federation. This competition is unique in that the teams will be playing in a mixed U18 3x3 competition, where each participating team will comprise of 2 females and 2 males.

This year, the program returns with a qualifying tournament for the 2nd IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Cup in Bali from 27-29 September 2019. The winning team from each country will be invited and have their travel cost, accommodation and meals covered by IBF, with the full support of the FIBA offices of Singapore and Oceania. Travel dates will be from 26-30 September 2019. The winning team from the Singapore qualifiers will represent Singapore, where they will be accompanied by the young leader from Singapore as Team Manager. Participating federations include seventeen countries from Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands.

In Bali, the participants will have the opportunity to represent their country in an international U18 mixed 3x3 basketball tournament. Over the course of the weekend, they will not only participate in a basketball tournament, but also have the chance to take part in a youth leadership workshop where they will develop their leadership skills as well as learn how to use basketball as a tool for positive social change.

Should any of the players from the winning team be unable to travel to the competition in Bali from 26-30 September 2019, the organizers reserve the right to select players from other teams in the competition.
