

IBF YOUTH LEADERS BASKETBALL CUP SINGAPORE

COMPETITION RULES & REGULATIONS

Overview

FIBA's Foundation, the International Basketball Foundation (IBF), recently launched the inaugural IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Program in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands. As part of the program, the youth leader selected by each federation will organize the IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Cup national qualifiers with the support of their national federation. This competition is unique in that the teams will be playing in a mixed U18 3x3 competition, where each participating team will comprise of 2 females and 2 males.

This competition will serve as the qualifying tournament for the IBF Youth Leaders Basketball Cup in Bali from 7-9 September 2018. The winning team from each country will be invited and have their travel costs, accommodation and meal costs covered by IBF, with the full support of the FIBA offices of Singapore and Oceania. Travel dates will be from 6-10 September 2018. Participating federations include Brunei, Cambodia, Fiji, Guam, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Northern Mariana Islands, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor-Leste, Vietnam.

In Bali, the participants will have the opportunity to represent their country in a U18 mixed 3x3 basketball tournament. Over the course of the weekend, they will not only participate in a basketball tournament, but also have the chance to take part in a youth leadership workshop where they will develop their leadership skills as well as learn how to use basketball as a tool for positive social change.

Should any of the players from the winning team be unable to travel to the competition in Bali from 6-10 September 2018, the organizers reserve the rights to select players from other teams in the competition.
